man, '08, treasurer.

HAS FILED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

The Ypsilanti Hay Press company has filed articles of incorporation and the purpose of the corporation is declared to be the manufacture and sale of hay presses and agricultural implements. The capital stock is one thousand dollars, two hundred and fifty dollars of which is paid in property in the form of a note given by Wm. K. Sagendorph. The stockholders are Albert Granger, Wm. K. Sagendorph and Georganna McGee, all of Jackson.